CONGRATULATIONS

Some of our SJCS students have competed in two "Battle of the Books" events among diocesan Catholic schools. The Fifth Grade took second 2nd place and the Sixth Grade were 1st place winners. Well done and congratulations to our students.

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION

Next Sunday, the students in our 2nd grade PSR and Catholic school classes will be receiving their First Holy Communion. I wrote about this last week in my column. This is a beautiful, catholic event for our children and their families. The Holy Eucharist makes us who we are as Catholics. Sacramental events are not only great and joyful moments for the recipient, but also "doors of grace" inviting all of us to renew with gratitude that first wonder we experienced at our own First Communion.

ELECTRONIC BILLBOARD

Hopefully you will have noticed by now the mounted television screen in the vestibule. This has been a donation from one of our parish families, and we are grateful for their gift.

The purpose is to use it as an electronic billboard, so that we do not have to have lots of signs on Mass, email Linda Bailey who will be the contact person at least two weeks before you want your parish event headlined. Her email contact is: vcbailey@gmail.com

Proclaim His marvelous deeds!

Fr. Jim Mainzer
